

Archbishop Emeritus James M. Hayes 1924 - 2016

Archdiocese of | Archidiocèse d'
Halifax-Yarmouth

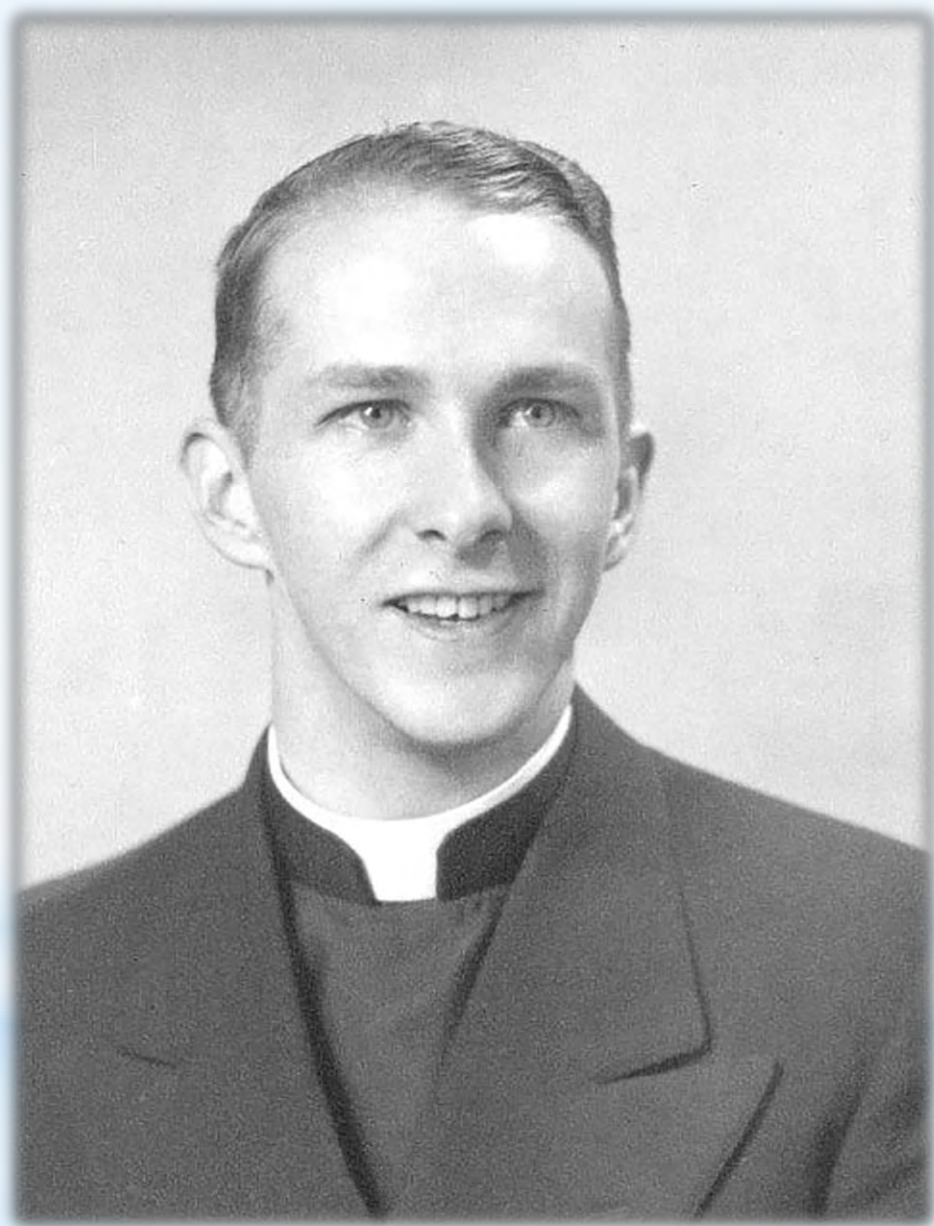

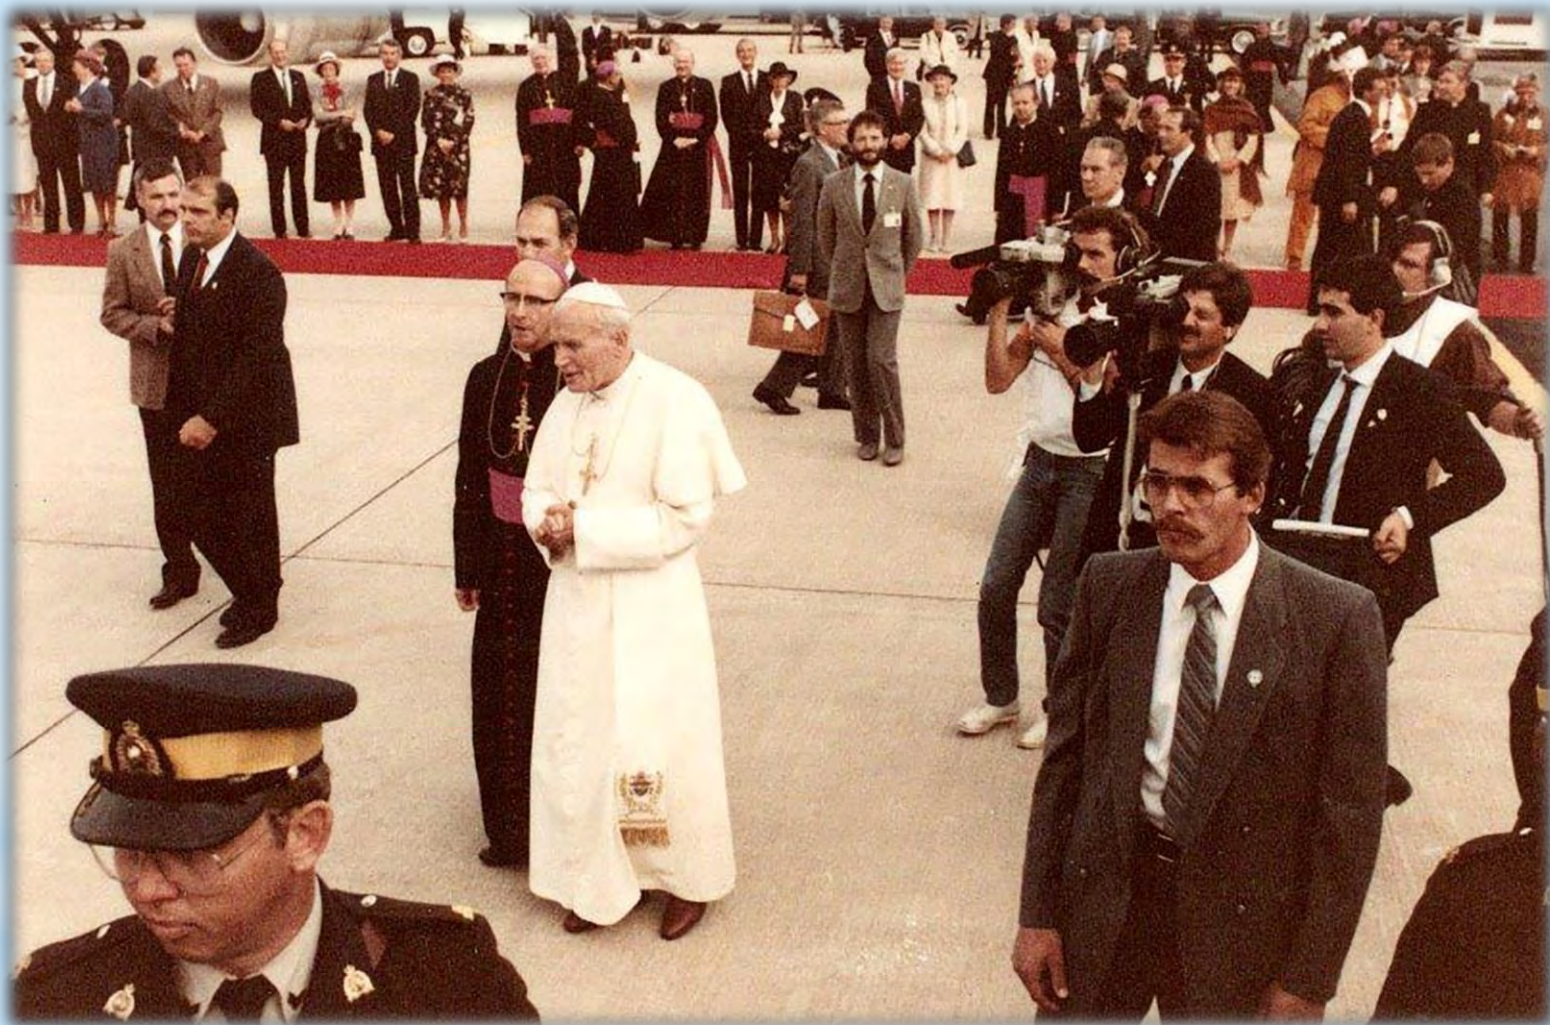

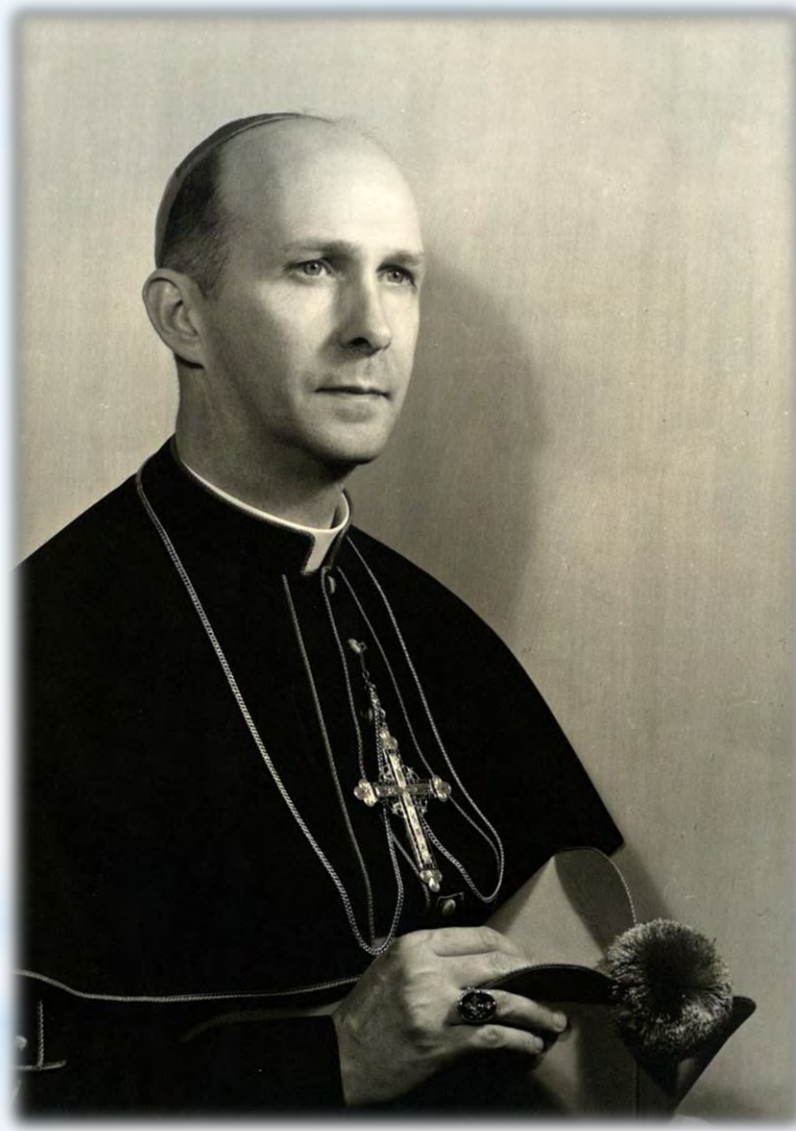

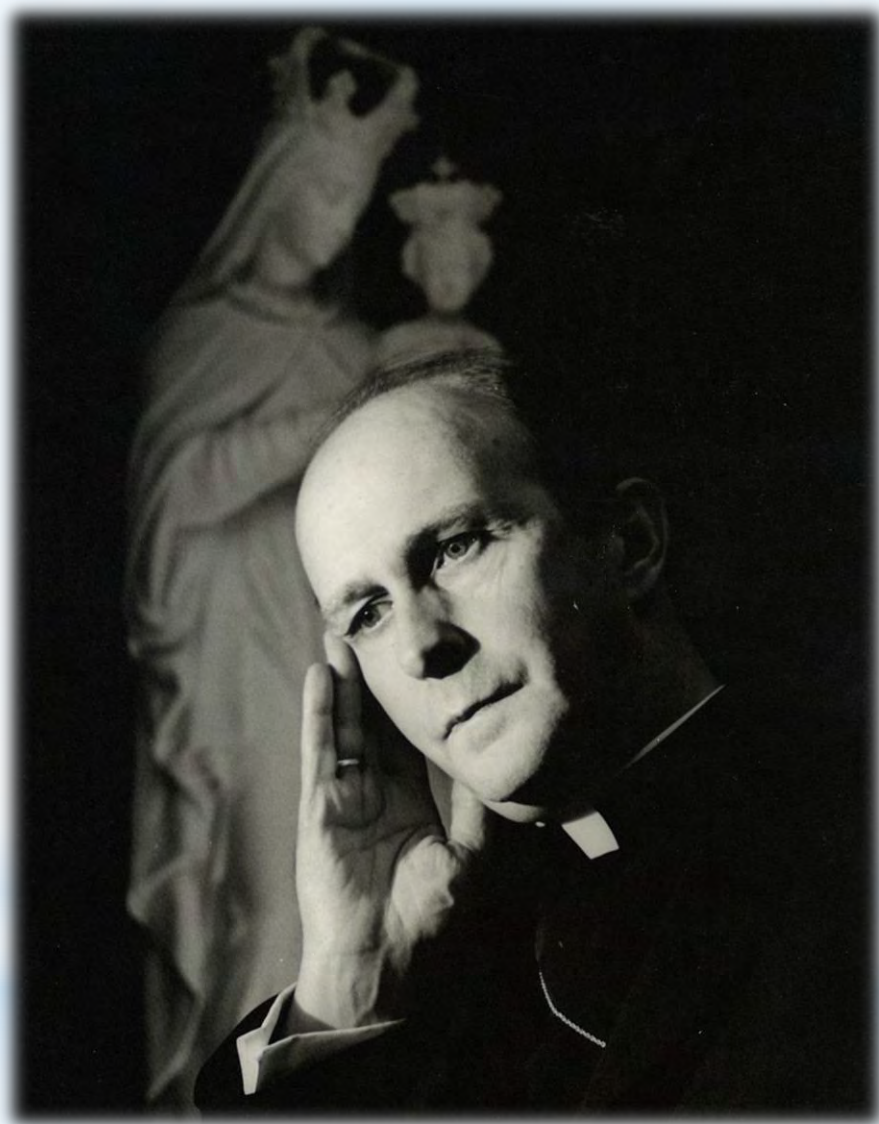

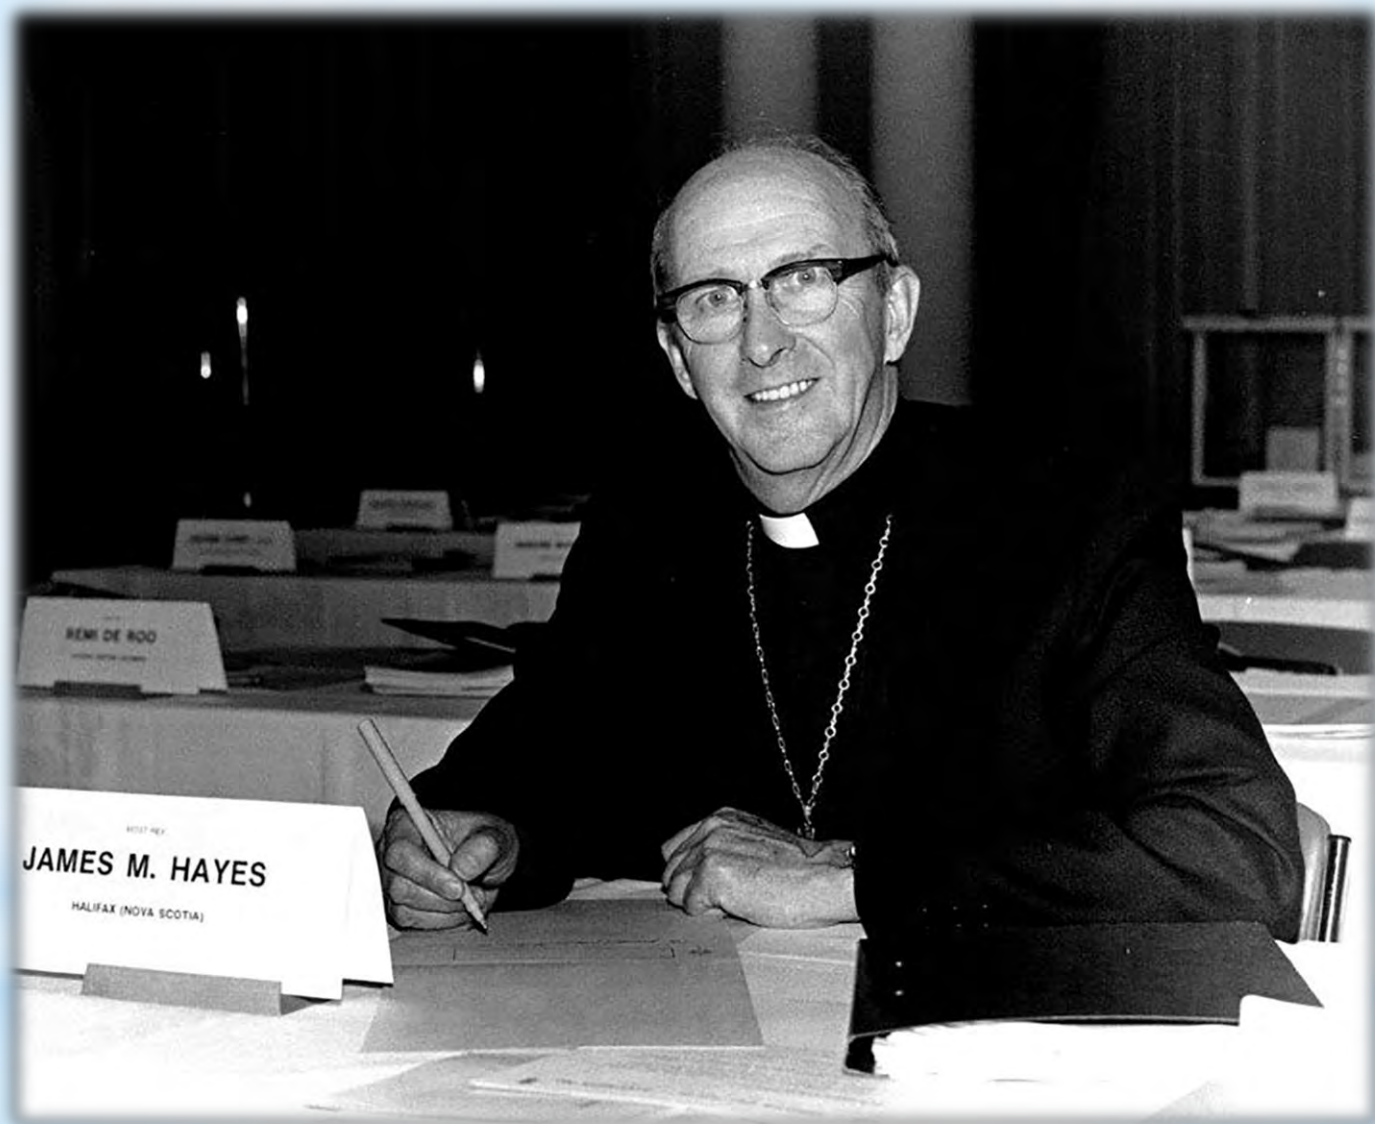

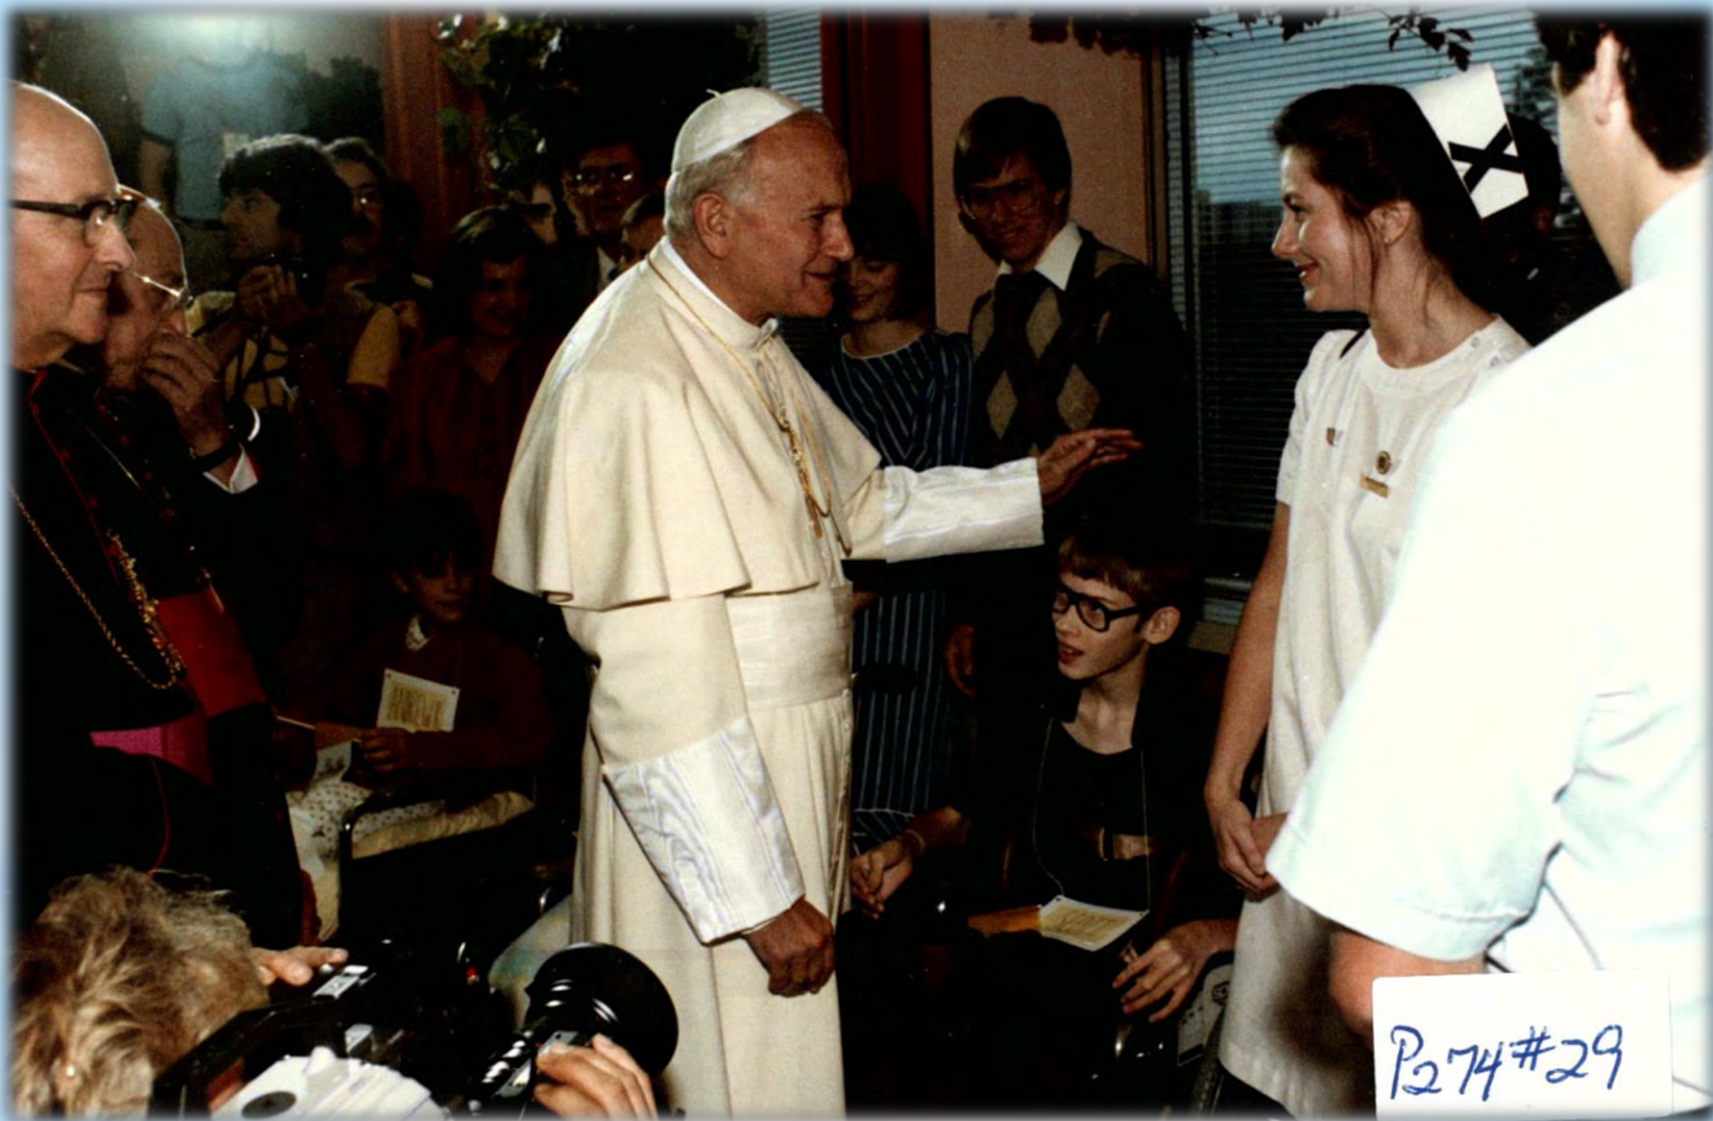

P282# 34

P274#29

1837

June 1, 1972

MARKS 25TH ANNIVERSARY — Most Rev James Hayes, archbishop of Halifax, this week celebrated his 25th year since his ordination to the priesthood. Archbishop Hayes was ordained on June 15, 1947, at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax. He was educated in Halifax and studied in Rome, receiving his doctorate in Canon installed as archbishop on Sept. 11, 1967. Shown during a celebration held at Mount Saint Vincent University are Monsignor Richard Murphy, Rev Robert Walsh, Archbishop Hayes, Rev. Henry Kline and Rev A. M. O'Driscoll, all of whom are classmates of the Archbishop and are as well marking their 25th anniversary to the priesthood.

